ALL SAINTS

Sunday, November 1, 2009

See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God.
— 1 John 3:1

Dear Parishioners,

Today we celebrate the feast of “All Saints”. We have Saints from all walks of life. In the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C., under the commanding mosaic of Christ in glory, there are six pillars. On top of every pillar, there is a statue of a Saint. There are figures of a queen, (St. Elizabeth), a vagrant (St. Benedict Joseph Labre), a cook (St. Zita), a doorman (St. Conrad), a mystic (St. Gemma) and a parish priest ( St. John Vianney). Though they are from different walks of life, they all responded to God’s invitation to holiness, commemorated in today’s liturgy.

It is a feast of encouragement, celebrating that we are all called to be holy. The biblical meaning of ‘saint’ is a person who is trying to live a life of holiness for the Lord. The theme of our parish life is the “Call to Holiness.” In the words of our Pastor, Fr. Tarantino, it means ‘the whole community grows together by learning how to live with Christ at the core of our lives.’ We must always see our “Call to Holiness” in the context of Christ.

All of us could one day be Saints in heaven, if only we decide to live by the norms of the Beatitudes that Jesus proclaims in today’s Gospel. The eight beatitudes are eight keys to unlock the treasures of Christian happiness. They are invitations from God our Father to the destiny of peace and joy.

Therefore, those of us who can now humbly say, ‘I need God’s help and my community’s help,’ can one day be saints, because Jesus said, “Blessed are the poor in spirit.” Those of us who can say now, ‘I am really hurt, but I still love,’ can one day be saints, because Jesus said, “Blessed are those who mourn.” Those of us who can say now, ‘I am upset but I am going to remain cool, calm and collected,’ can one day be saints, because Jesus said, “Blessed are the meek.” If we say now, ‘I really want to do the right thing,’ we can one day be saints, because Jesus said, “Blessed are those who hunger of righteousness.” If we say now, ‘In spite of the persecution that I face, I shall continue doing the right,’ we can one day be saints, because Jesus said, “Blessed are the persecuted for the sake of righteousness.” If we say now, ‘I am going to treat others the way I want others to treat me,’ we can one day be saints, because Jesus said, “Blessed are the merciful.” If we say now, ‘I am going to be a bridge-builder for peace,’ we can one day be saints, because Jesus said, “Blessed are the peace makers.” If we say now, ‘through my inward journey, I keep my heart always clean,’ we can one day be saints, because Jesus said, “Blessed are the clean of heart.”

The beatitudes are the marks of a true disciples of Jesus. They are the standards by which we measure holiness. It is the life to which we have all been called. A person who lives according to the beatitudes is already living in the kingdom of God. I wish that all of us may inherit this kingdom of God, here on this beautiful planet. May God bless us all.

Fr. Lawrence

Question of the Week for Adults: “Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.” How do I show mercy and compassion, particularly toward others who I believe have wronged me or have not done things my way?
For Children: How do I treat my family and friends when I don’t agree with?

RCIA... It is with great pleasure that I introduce to you the inquirers and candidates who will become part of our faith community through the Rite of Acceptance and the Rite of Welcoming.

Bobbie, a young man from Strawberry, will be celebrating the "Rite of Acceptance into the Order of Catechumens." He is preparing for Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist. Britta, Mikelynn, Rebecca and Summer already share our Christian faith through Baptism. They will celebrate the "Rite of Welcoming," as they mark this moment of following God's call to live their Christian faith and complete their initiation within the Catholic community.

The rite includes our welcoming them as Mass begins. They are signed by the cross of Christ and affirm their intention to live under Christ's cross. Their formation in God's Word begins as the Word we hear proclaimed each week in our assembly is presented to them. The Mass will take a little longer. You are an important part in this celebration and will welcome them into our midst and share your faith with them. After Mass you are invited to greet them at the hospitality in the parish hall and personally welcome them.

This celebration will take place on Sunday, Nov. 15 at the 9:00 A.M. Mass.

Listen to the excitement of our newcomers as they voice their desire to be part of the St. Hilary Catholic Community of Faith:

"I am here because my personal spiritual journey has converged with my need as a wife and mother to build a family of faith and then continue that journey through ever-growing faith. (Mikelynn)

"I am here because I want to be baptized, and it's the best idea I've had yet!" (Bobbie)

I am here because I promised God I would be, and I am very happy to be on this journey." (Rebecca)

I am here because the Holy Spirit led me to the Church, and I feel at home with God here." (Summer)

"I am here because after this long spiritual journey over all sorts of oceans, my little boat is looking for a safe place to dock itself and rest in God." (Britta)

May we, the Catholic community of St. Hilary be firm in our own faith and show love, support and encouragement to our newest candidates.

Please keep the RCIA team also in your prayers: Anne Drew, Francine Osenton, Janis Cherry, Ross Spector, and Sr. Dolores.
